

AREA FOUR: FACING RISK TOGETHER

20 A structured person sees rules as a source of perfection.
Therefore, they will tend to follow established rules.

21 The pioneering person sees rules as an obstacle and tends to question them.

22 A structured person will tend to ask permission
while a pioneering person will tend to ask forgiveness.

23 A structured person will tend to avoid risk;
while the pioneering person will tend to embrace risk.
